

2020 Match Play Championship Weekend

The 2020 Match Play Championship Weekend is in the books, and we have a new Match Play Champion! Congratulations to Joe Allulis for winning a very close and exciting match against Rob Parent in dramatic fashion on the 16th hole. Both players are to be congratulated for rising to the top of a very competitive field of golfers.

The rest of the tournament field was equally inspired and gave Fox Hollow a run for its money on Saturday. 12 players out of 38 played the course to a draw or better, with Mike Curtis leading the way to finish 4 up. There were several ties that had to be decided by handicap hole regression, although none requiring as much higher mathematics as the A-Flight Low Gross score of 70, won by Joe Allulis. What started out as an overcast day made way to brilliant sunshine by the afternoon which made the shade of the 18th hole feel especially nice. A fitting way to usher in this year's Match Play Champion.

Thanks to everyone who helped make this year's tournament a success and we look forward to seeing you all in 2 weeks for the 2-day Club Championship!
